He won't pardon them until his way out of office, which in his mind could be in 4 years.

As I've said here before, Snowden gets pardoned, he pulled over for suspiciously going 1 mile over the speed limit, and goes to gitmo for that collection of CP and a suitcase nuke in the trunk of his car.
And if not that he gets "mugged" and "accidentally" shot by 12 glock carrying niggers.

I've heard rumours that Snowden was CIA and his leaks of NSA documents were more a reflection of conflict aberdeen the two agencies then they were anything else.

He won't. Because he would be opposed by:
The military, most of congress (even from GOP), the glow niggers in 3 letter agencies, and his Jewish masters... I mean.... Jewish allies (pic related).

I'm not sure why his motives would even matter. He exposed unconstitutional surveillance programs. Nobody even tried very hard to argue that the programs WERE constitutional; they just tired to ignore/suppress the news.

He will pardon them during his 2nd term during military tribunals of traitors related to the 2020 US election. The media won't know whether to shit or cry and it will go right by them. Flynn? He was immediately needed because he and Powell are working together to prepare for these arrests.

All those people are meme status at this point. The CIA doesnt see a reason to pardon them. And it makes sense.

My brother was a real glow bigger in the NSA. He worked with Snowden. Theres literally hundreds of regular civilian analysts in the CIA and NSA. The requirments are litteraly 1.Join military.
2. Score above Grunt level in ASVAP

He said Snowden is way overhyped and the information he released everyone already knew if they had ever heard of the Patriot Act. All snowden really did was make it public knowledge to more people.

And let's be honest. Hes a little bit up his own ass and more than likely gave information to China or Russia or both to stay protected. Why the fuck would Putin just let him chill in exchange for nothing. Dont be stupid. Still I feel bad for him and think he did the right thing.
